Principal's Newsletter Term 1 Week 10

Kia Ora, Kia Orana, Malo, Talofa Lava, Bula Vanaka, Malo e Lelei, Fakaalofa Lahi atu, Namaste, Talofa Ni and Warm Pasifika Greetings!

Teaching is about changing lives

I asked the teaching staff to consider three leading questions about working at Malfroy School. Over the next three weeks we will share their responses.

What makes Malfroy School special?

The students and the staff. Malfroy has Montessori and Rumaki units. We work hard to ensure that all students are valued and appreciated. Ngareta
The community that is part of Malfroy - great support for the school. School and home relationships - parents are happy to approach the school and teachers if it is needed and vice versa. Sarah
Our tamariki, make them feel welcome and know that we as staff care about them. Staff work collaboratively. Having whanau support. Having a Rumaki, Montessori and a disability unit. Dolly
The people - look out for each other. Tessa
Special character units and the staff. Raeleen

How do you connect with students?

Find common ground through the same likes or dislikes. Learn who they are and where they come from and link through whakapapa or whanau in common. Celebrate them! Acknowledge the good things they do whether it is in school or out of school. Listen, communicate and care. Ngareta
Build relationships, take time to listen to them, interact with them, play games, respond to concerns and worries. Share my experiences with them and listen to theirs. Helping them find links and connections between themselves and our community/ local history. Sarah

Acknowledge the good things that students do. Knowing and having a good relationship with students. Whakapapa-having that connect with students and their whanau. Have a listening ear. Dolly
Greet each student by name individually as they enter the room in the morning. Follow up conversations from the day before. Tessa
Build relationships with the students - Talking to and with them, what makes them unique, what are they interested in. Raeleen

Where do you see education at Malfroy School in 3 years time?

Digitally competent. Able to use computational thinking and design thinking to develop knowledge and skill in using different digital technologies and creating digital content. The dispositions are embedded and students are aware of what a 'good learner' at Malfroy looks like. Ngareta

Students more aware of how they can be 'good learners' More understanding of our CPRs and evidence of them being used in the classroom. Sarah

E-learning, having more apps available for students to use. Adaptive learning technology which would support the individual student according to their learning needs. Dolly
CPR embedded. Students articulate about their own learning; where they are, what & why they are learning & therefore steering their own learning; more aware of how they learn. Tessa
Pretty much the same where it is now, maybe more online use, but unless something drastic happens like each class turning into a Montessori class. Raeleen

CPR = Collaborator, Problem Solver, Risk Taker

Welcome to Whaea Delyse in Room 3

Kia Ora, My name is Whaea Delyse and I am teaching in wonderful Room 3. I grew up in Rotorua and have been teaching here for the last 14

Years. I have a passion for teaching and learning at Junior level. We have been busy in Room 3 since we have come back to school this term. I am having a great time getting to know everyone at Malfroy, learning the Malfroy 8 and meeting all of the Whanau that makes up your amazing community.

Reading book stock take

We will be doing a stock take of all readers over the next few weeks. Can you please do a search at home for any Malfroy School reading books and send them back to school. We spend thousands of dollars each year buying books for students to read and replacing lost ones. Any sent back will be gratefully received!
